

This is one of the best things New Jersey has done for a state that has a lot of problems - If this law is repealed I will shut off my land service and strictly use a cell phone. Don't think Verizon would appreciate that and many more like me especially since NJ is trying to offer them incentives to keep jobs in NJ